Exhibit H

8/30/24, 11:30 AM Case 2:24-cv-01129-RJC Document 24-(8) Fac Fiberd 12/02/24 Page 2 of 2

FEDEX OVERTIME CASE – IMPORTANT

UPDATE – PLEASE RESPOND IF YOU WANT US
TO CONTINUE PURSUING YOUR CLAIM

From fedex@llrlaw.com To Cassandra Louise Miller Today at 7:12 AM ➤

PLEASE READ IMPORTANT MESSAGE BELOW ABOUT YOUR CLAIM AGAINST FEDEX FOR OVERTIME PAY – YOU MUST CLICK HERE AND SUBMIT THIS RETAINER IF YOU WANT US TO CONTINUE REPRESENTING YOU TO RECOVER OVERTIME PAY WE BELIEVE YOU ARE OWED

Dear Cassandra Louise.

We have some important news for you about the case we have been pursuing for you against FedEx in order to recover overtime pay. You may recall that you opted into this case several years ago, in which we have argued that FedEx Ground is your joint employer and responsible for ensuring you get paid overtime you are elgible for. After years of Ittigation, the judge in a related case we have been pursuing in Massachusetts ruled that the case cannot go forward as a collective action. As a result, we concluded that the national case that you are a part of also cannot proceed as a collective action. However, we can still represent you on your overtime claim against FedEx, but we would need to refile your claim individually, instead of as part of a collective action.

This is no problem for us to do, and we expect to continue representing thousands of FedEx drivers around the country for whom we have been pursuing this claim. If you want to continue having us represent your places CLICK HERE

Cassandra Imaboss Miller

May 7 · 🚱

•••